Ausschreibung

It's a long time ago that so many people were seeking for Asyl in Germany like in these times. In their homelands dominates violence, persecution and hunger. Most of them lost their worldly goods and escaped from life-endangering circumstances. And now arrived in a new home these people get faced with new challenges during daily life. Most of them will never have the chance to return in their homeland and need to establish a new life in Germany. But to arrive especially social in Germany they need our help and support. As well we need to notice these people as humans and not only as victims or refugees.

Our sport culture is open-minded and offers all humans a possibility. Sport doesn't make any differences between skin colour, religion, culture, ethnicity and languages. It's the power of sport. Sport brings lightness in the daily routine and it brings people playfully together. Sport supports the integration of this new citizens.

Sport has the power to overcome prejudices of culture differences and keeps the society together. It promotes encounter, creates understanding and relieves from prejudices.
